SATURDAY EVE., AUG., 21, 1886.

Most tenderly the Republic of Mexico is informed that this country keeps a buzz-saw in constant repair.—Philadelphia Times.

The forest fires in Wisconsin rendered seven hundred families homeless. Several million dollars worth of lumber was destroyed.

The Record of the last session of Congress will fill about ten thousand pages and an exchange remarks that it contains enough wind to stock a cyclone.

CLEVELAND's administration has been endorsed by Indiana, Tennessee, Kansas and Texas Democrats. Disappointed place-hunters should observe the hand writing on the wall.

A LETTER from Lake Chautauqua contains the startling information that there are fifty-four young ladies at that delightful summer resort this season to one young man. How we do pity that young man!

THE counties of Clay, Lee, Laurel and several others of the Southeastern part of the State are, it is reported raising good crops of cotton and have been for years. The crop is said to be of a very good quality, and is generally used for home consumption.

ANDERSON COUNTY has voted against a proposition to subscribe $100,000 to the Louisville Southern Railroad. The election was an exciting one. The friends of the road expect to throw out the vote of two precincts, which will, if done, give them a majority of two hundred.

HURRAH for Kentucky!

The following item accompanied by a jug with a corn-cob stopper in it, was received from Kentucky this morning: "Our pious and proper brethren of Vermont may lift their hands in holy rapture every time they hear of a blood-sucking bee in Kentucky, but if they will look at the last internal revenue statement from Commissioner Miller they will discover that Kentucky contributes five hundred times as much cash toward the maintenance of the peace and dignity of the Nation as Vermont does, and has a right to raise five hundred times as much tax as that State does. Don't you think so Mr. Editor?"

Later: We have sampled the jug, Hurrah for Kentucky! We can wipe the ground up with anything that walks on two legs in Vermont. Who-pee.—Washington Critic.

Rheumatism

Though painful and wearing almost beyond endurance, it is not an incurable disease if treated in time. Perhaps no other disease has so baffled the efforts of science and medicine as this, but at last a remedy has been discovered in

DR. J. C. PECOR'S CURE FOR RHEUMATISM, and is heartily endorsed by many of the leading Physicians.

WHAT THEY SAY: "I had a case of inflammatory Rheumatism of nearly all the large joints. Gave Torvaldine, and to-day my patient can sit and sleep easily."

"In my opinion TORVALDINE surpasses all other so-called rheumatic remedies."

"I have given TORVALDINE a fair trial, and think it the best remedy I have ever found for Rheumatism."

NOT STRANGE, BUT TRUE.

Another Large Crowd, Splendid Racing and a Fine Exhibition.

The Young Men's Fair Company scored another big success yesterday, and the members are consequently happy. The crowd in attendance was, if anything, larger than that on Thursday. All seemed bent on enjoying themselves, and the day was one of pleasure. The weather was a little too warm for real comfort, but the energetic use of fans and a slight breeze helped materially in making things pleasant.

The exhibition of stock in the arena was a splendid one. Bracken, Mason, Fleming, Nicholas, Bourbon, Bath and Fayette Counties all came in for a share of the premiums.

In the afternoon, W. H. Wilson, of Cynthiaiana, gave another exhibition of his remarkable mare, Lady Delarquette. The Lady is worthy of the name she has won. Following is a list of premiums awarded yesterday:

Mare and two colts, any sex, C. T. Donnell, Carlisle, $15.
Mare and suckling colt, any sex, J. B. Wilson, Rebel, $10.

In the baby show, the blue ribbon was awarded to Emma Cord, of Millwood. John H. Hall, of this city, Dr. J. H. Samuels, of Poplar Plains, William McMiller, of Millersburg, and Charles Brown, of Covington, were the Judges, but were unable to agree. Colonel Craddock, of Paris, was then called in, but none of the babies had a majority of the votes. B. T. McCoy, of Lexington, was next called and soon settled the question.

The trotting was undoubtedly the best of the meeting, so far. The races were hotly contested, and the winners had to fight hard and do good work to "get there." The sport was exciting, and the crowd enjoyed it hugely. The first on the programme was the four-year-old stake race. In this there were but three to start, Eagle Bird, Granby and Greenlander. The first sold as the favorite in the pools, and her backers were not disappointed. The two others did splendid work, and trotted right up with the winner most of the time. The last heat in this race was one of the most exciting ever trotted on the course, Granby and Eagle Bird finishing the last quarter almost neck and neck. The following is a summary:

Eagle Bird..... 1 1 1 1
Granby..... 2 2 2 2
Greenlander..... 3 3 3 3
Time--2:23 2/3, 2:24 2/3.

The second race was for a purse of $250 divided--for horses that had never trotted better than 2:27. [There were seven to start, Olaf, St. Bel, Four Corners, Astral, O. F. C., Grover Cleveland and Texas Bill. St. Bel was the favorite, but was beaten, sorely disappointing those who had put up their money on him. Olaf won the race on the first, second and fourth heats. St. Bel won the third heat. The following is a summary:

Olaf.....	1	1	1	1
St. Bel.....	2	2	2	2
Four Corners.....	3	3	3	3
O. F. C.....	4	4	4	4
Grover Cleveland.....	5	5	5	5
Texas Bill.....	6	6	6	6
Time--2:23 2/3, 2:24 2/3.

THE EASTERN FRUIT CROP.

REPORTS FROM ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED SOURCES.

The Field of Apples in the New England States Not Quite Up to an Average—Reports on the Peach, Plums and Pear Crops—Predictions From Europe.
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 21.—With the aid of about 1,500 special correspondents The New-England Homesteadist will this week be enabled to present a complete forecast as to the yield of large fruits, the harvest of which has begun. It is the even or bearing year for apples in New-England, but, although there is a large yield of full fruit, the reports indicate that the crop of winter apples will be about 70 per cent. of the usual even year yield in six states.

In the best apple counties of Vermont, along Lake Champlain, not two-thirds of the full even-year crop will be secured, while Maine reports a decrease of 30 per cent., but both of these states and New Hampshire will have a large surplus. Connecticut has but half a crop and Massachusetts only 80 per cent. of a crop. The falling off in New-England, however, will be partly made up by the great crop in the apple sections of Nova Scotia. Annapolis and King counties last year exported only 40,000 barrels, but this section will have a surplus of 100,000 barrels. Perhaps the most significant fact revealed in this important report is that the great apple counties of Western New York promise the lightest crop in twenty years, and the worst feature is that the quality promises to be comparatively poor. The great apple counties of Orleans, Monroe, Niagara, Wayne and Wyoming are reported as having scarcely 50 per cent. of the average yield. In Eastern New York there is a better prospect, but the average for the whole state, 40 per cent., is only 50 per cent. Pennsylvania has 55 per cent. of a full apple crop, and there is a good crop in Ohio, but from further west the reports are discouraging, and the northeast and the southwest have such a small supply as to offer a remunerative market for the surplus of the middle states, much of which was last year available for export.

Cable reports from various points in England and on the continent confirm the earlier predictions of rather a short apple crop there, especially of good fruit in England. The orange crop of Southern Europe, however, will be large and will affect the demand for American oranges somewhat. Last year nearly 90,000 barrels of apples were exported to England, the supply being so large that prices were barely remunerative. The export will hardly be as large this year. American orange pippins sold in Liverpool at $3.50 per barrel on Monday. This was the first sale of the season, and the price is almost as high as last year, which is a slight advance on current values.

Pears will be considerably below the yield and possible for the third time are practically a failure north of the forty-first parallel. There is a fair crop of plums and they will be cheap, grapes and wine grapes are light and a good crop in Southern New-England should bring fair prices.

OVER THE WHIRLPOOL.

Cooper Graham's Successful Trip, but James Scott is Picked Up Dead.
NIAGARA FALLS, Aug. 21.—Cooper Graham made a second successful passage of the whirlpool rapids, but was not so lucky on the Canadian side. Graham's head was exposed through the top of his barrel, and strange to say escaped any bad results. He started from the Mad of the landing, and was on Canadian grounds safe seventeen minutes later. Graham says his experience in the rapids was frightful, and he was nearly leaving his head split open against the rocks. He did not imagine the rapids were so violent. He is positive no one could pass through them unprotected without being killed.

James Scott, the Lewiston fisherman, afterwards started to swim the rapids, but was only by a life preserver. His body was picked up at Lewiston. He had been killed in the vortex. The body was but slightly bruised.

Knight of Labor News.

DETROIT, Aug. 21.—There was a big breeze kicked up in labor circles by the action of the state assembly of Knights of Labor changing the time of holding their annual assembly from September 7 to August 25. The change was made on request of Mr. Fowdery, who wishes to have many delegates as possible in the general assembly at Richmond, Va., to counteract the influence of the home club of New York. The change in date is necessary to have the delegates on the required forty days prior to the session of the general assembly. Joseph A. Lattin, a prominent knight, claims that the change is unconstitutional. A majority of the order in Michigan favors Fowdery, however, and the action will probably be sustained.

Friests Not Allowed to Hold Office.

DARTMOUTH, N.H., Aug. 21.—The Rev. Father O'Reilly, treasurer of the National League of America, has it is said, the alternative of resigning his trusteeship or his priesthood, and will then have a little scold to settle with his bishop for disobedience. A few days ago Bishop Higgins summoned a synod of his priests, but none of them, not even the bishop, attended. He was not at the synod. All other priests in the diocese were present, and they confirmed an edict of the bishop forbidding any priest in the diocese from holding any public office aside from his priesthood.

Sporting Event at Her Harbor.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 21.—Clark beat Paddock at tennis, winning the $500 cup. The horse tournament began at 4 p. m. There were nine entries: R. Taylor, Baltimore; C. Halsey, Providence; C. Wright, Philadelphia; Harry McKee, Philadelphia; P. Harrison, Nickerson, Girard, Roche, West Point. In the contest F. Harrison stood first, Nickerson second, Girard third, Roche fourth. The games were witnessed by Matthew Arnold, Hon. James G. Blaine and others.

Murm' Damages.

ST. JOHN, N. P., Aug. 21.—Accounts are pouring in of the destructive effects of the recent gale. It was the most severe ever known at St. Pierre. Many buildings and much shipping were damaged. Two vessels were driven ashore and wrecked and several men hurt. Reports of wrecks come in all quarters, together with the loss of life in many cases. It is feared that the Labrador coast fishing fleets have suffered.

CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

A Letter From the Solicitor General Pertaining to Federal Office Holders.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 21.—The letter of Commissioner of Pensions William E. McLean, saying it would be better for Robert L. Taylor, pension agent at Knoxville, not to attend the Nashville convention which nominated him for governor of Tennessee, caused much comment among Federal office holders and gave rise to the following correspondence:

"LOUISVILLE, Aug. 21.
"Hon. A. H. Garland, Attorney General, Washington.
"DEAR SIR:—There has been ordered in my congressional district a primary election for the 4th day of next month for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for governor. Will it be regarded as a violation of the president's recent civil service proclamation in me to go home and vote? I have no disposition nor desire in any effort to do anything in violation of any law. An early reply is desired in order that I may know how to act. Respectfully,
"G. A. Jenks."
The reply from the recently appointed solicitor general, Mr. G. A. Jenks, reads as follows:

"DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 21.
"A. J. (G. A. Jenks), United States Marshal, Louisville.
"DEAR SIR:—The circular referred to in your of the 14th inst., is sufficiently clear to be its own interpreter. It does not demand an abdication of civil rights, nor require a renunciation of the duties of a citizen, but the official influence of the officer, it doubtless intends shall be entirely divorced from party politics. It is not possible within the purview of my duties to determine what in each case under all the circumstances of life the officer should do. It is not possible to determine from during, but on honest purpose, in good faith, to carry out the clear intent of the circular according to the best judgment of the officer will, as a rule, be the best guide in his observance. Yours respectfully,
"G. A. Jenks."

Tripple Drowning.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 21.—Three persons were drowned in the Trinity river in a very bad way. Mrs. William Beach, wife of a well known Missouri Pacific railroad conductor, her son Edward, aged ten, Miss Kate Gardner and a colored servant girl, went to the river and the boy stripped to go to bathing, while the other members of the party sat themselves on a log on the bank. The boy did not swim and getting beyond his depth sank. His mother at once plunged into the river to rescue him. She could swim, but was hampered by her clothing, and when she asked that she was unable to sustain him and sank with him. Coming to the surface she called to a man, who had been sitting on the bank at some distance and begged his assistance. The man ran to the bank and jumped into the water, but as he could not swim, he too sank and in doing so caught Mrs. Beach, the arm, and the man, woman and child went down together. All three came up once together, and then Mrs. Beach and the man sank for the last time. The boy rose to the surface the third time alone, but after a brief struggle sank and rose to more. The two young women being unable to help the boy, they were obliged to witness their struggles without the power to offer assistance.

Attempted Abduction.

Dodge, who has had charge of the child since the death of the mother, who was Bull's first wife. An exciting scene occurred. The child was taken from the house of Mrs. Dodge's father, who was appointed guardian pro tem.
